JUDGMENT

When the writ petition came up for admission, the learned counsel for the petitioner confines his argument for an expeditious disposal of the injunction petition filed in C.M.A. No. 2/2007. The person was aggrieved by an order passed under Order 21 Rule 99 of Code of Civil Procedure. On an earlier occasion this Court held that appeal is the appropriate remedy and therefore the petitioner moved an appeal before the Sub court, Neyyattinkara, and along with the appeal he has filed an interim application. Considering the urgency expressed and the fact that an injunction petition is filed and as Order 39 Rule 3 C.P.C. contemplates disposal of injunction petition within a period of 30 days, I direct the learned Subordinate Judge, Neyyattinkara, to dispose of the injunction application within a period of one month from today and the writ petitioner is directed to submit a copy of this order to the Subordinate Judge, Neyyattinkara for compliance.

M.N.KRISHNAN,JUDGE
